Strasburg Route - 16 miles

Suggested Start/Finish:
Rail Road Museum of Pennsylvania

Comments from route creator, Dale Johnson:

This 16.4 mile ride, which starts at the Pennsylvania Railroad Museum, travels through the heart of Lancaster County's Amish country. It includes views of many preserved farms, two covered bridges, several Amish one room school houses, the historic town of Strasburg, rides past the farm where the movie "Witness" was filmed, and a wonderful ice cream stop near the end. The ride is mostly rolling, with a couple of short, but steeper hills thrown in for variety. The cue sheet has a variety of highlights marked and keep your eye out for all the Amish one-room school houses.
